November 27 - Celeste Flavia Greco

"But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money." This servant was scared. He didn't want to take any risks and just wanted to play everything safe. As he confesses to his master, "Out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground." And the master was not pleased. The other servants who invested the money he gave them were richly rewarded for their efforts to produce more. But this servant was punished for letting his fear rule the day.

What factors are keeping us from making a return on God's investment in us? He has given us all life, and each of us also has a special collection of "talents" to make use of. We have certain gifts, skills, experiences, resources, and abilities that (though we may not often think about it) come from God. He calls us to make the most of these things, not just to take them for granted or bury them in the ground, so to speak. Our gifts are meant not just for our own enjoyment, but to help others, to spread truth and goodness and beauty to the world around us.

Sometimes, however, we fail to really capitalize on our potential. Laziness, distraction, or self-pity can get in the way if we are unwilling to put in the hard work to improve our natural gifts, if we allow ourselves to zone out with entertainment or frivolous pastimes instead of making good use of the time entrusted to us, or if we wallow in negativity by focusing on what we don't have instead of embracing what we do.

Each moment is a gift from God. May we seize every opportunity to multiply the investment God has made in us so that we may be worthy to hear God tell us, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

KIDS' CORNER

In this Sunday's gospel, Jesus tells a story about 3 servants. Their master entrusts them with different amounts of money. Two of the servants double their money but fear gets in the way for the third servant. All he can do is save what he has. We need to recognize all the gifts that we have been given and our responsibility to care for those gifts. That means caring for the world we live in and caring for one another. It also means having the courage to be our best selves! Jesus doesn't want us to bury our gifts. Jesus calls all of us to double our gifts, to use them to grow better at loving God, ourselves and one another.

What gift has God given you and how can you use that gift to tell others about Jesus?

A Place at the Table Ministries...

Ministry for our LGBTQ2 Members

This ministry is designed to provide an opportunity for our LGBTQ2 brothers and sisters to come together to find support, encouragement, and the gifts of faith and community. This ministry will provide a safe and welcoming place of belonging. The first gathering will be offered on Wednesday, November 22nd at 7:30 p.m.

Singles in Christ...

For those who are single, because they have never married or are divorced, separated or widowed, this is an invitation to join together to share experiences of being single in the world and in the church. This is a celebration of the unique charism of being single today as well as the opportunity to connect with other men and women who know similar experiences. This developing ministry is not a dating service or a romantic connection venue, but rather an opportunity for single people, in a relaxed and non-threatening environment, to connect with one another.
